

ROADMAP

Immediate Goals:

2:

LISTING ON COINMARKETCAP (CMC) AND COINGECKO:

To increase visibility and awareness, Politicoin will be listed on leading cryptocurrency data platforms such as CoinMarketCap and CoinGecko. This will allow potential investors and users to discover and learn more about the project

1:

LISTING ON DECENTRALIZED EXCHANGES (DEX):

Politicoin (POLI) will be listed on popular decentralized exchanges to ensure accessibility and liquidity for community members. This will provide an avenue for users to easily trade POLI tokens in a decentralized manner.

Short-Term Goals:

1: CENTRALIZED EXCHANGE LISTINGS:

Politicoin will pursue listings on centralized cryptocurrency exchanges to further increase liquidity and accessibility for users. By expanding to centralized exchanges, Politicoin aims to reach a broader audience of investors and enthusiasts.

CONTINUOUS DEVELOPMENT OF POLITISIM GAME:

Development of PolitiSim, the revolutionary political simulation game, will be ongoing. The game will be continuously updated and improved to reflect real-time political issues and engage the community in meaningful dialogue and debate.

Long-Term Goals (Ongoing):

2:

ACTIVE PARTICIPATION IN POLITICS VIA MEMES AND POLITISIM:

The community will play an integral role in actively participating in politics through the creation and sharing of memes, as well as engaging with the PolitiSim game. By leveraging memes and gamification, Politicoin will empower users to voice their opinions and influence political discourse in real time

1: COMMUNITY GROWTH AND ENGAGEMENT:

Politicoin will focus on fostering a vibrant and active community of users who are passionate about politics and meme culture. Through social media, forums, and events, Politicoin will actively engage with the community and encourage participation in political discussions.

3:

CONTINUOUS EVOLUTION AND ADAPTATION:

Politics is a fluid and ever-changing landscape, and Politicoin recognizes the need to evolve and adapt with it. The project will remain agile and responsive to emerging political issues, ensuring that the platform and community remain relevant and effective in shaping the future of politics.

Join Politicoin on its journey to revolutionize politics through memes, votes, and blockchain technology. Together, we can build a more transparent, accountable, and inclusive political system for all
